INCUBATING CONSTRAINT

[\[VIDEO\]](#)

I'm re-engaging with A Beautiful Constraint and thinking about how constraint is an issue in the life of the church. Let's incubate on that.!

CONSTRAINT - WE FACE THAT IN THE CHURCH ALL THE TIME

We can identify a multitude of things that are constraints on the church.

Money. Time. Neighborhood. Condition of the facility. Age of leaders. Lack of youth. Not the way it used to be. Change all around. All of those, and so much more, can be seen as constraints on the church.

What is our starting relationship with such constraints?

Do we see ourselves in the position of victim, of neutralizer, or of transformer?

Think of those challenges, those obstacles...those constraints. Are we victims of them? Could they be neutral? How might we transform them?

It is true in our lives to as leaders. The constraints we face.

Are we victims? Will we neutralize those constraints? Might we be called to transform them?

CONSIDER CONSTRAINT. VICTIM, NEUTRALIZER, OR TRANSFORMER? WHERE ARE YOU?
